When Jesus was asked which commandment was the greatest, He answered that we should love God with all our hearts and souls and minds. He added that we should love our neighbors as ourselves, and that all of the law and the prophets rest on these two commands. The value of community is woven throughout all of the Bible, and its importance can be felt in all of our lives. Know that your church is here for you, for your families, and for our community, and that we are glad that you are here.

“Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning”
